CAPT. ASA BOOTH, of the Diurnal, says if Capt. Dillon, of the Phoson, will go to the boat store he can find the other $300 which he sees that the other $300 will be forthcoming immediately. Capt. Booth says the Diurnal is the fastest boat, and if Capt. Dillon thinks otherwise, either to put up or shut up.

AMONG the sufferers of the great fire at Milton, Pennsylvania, was the oldest brother of Rev. S. B. Barnitz, of this city, Rev. Alexander McLean Barnitz, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Press despatches and Pennsylvania visitors to Wheeling have spoken of the burning of Mr. Barnitz, and his courageous battle with the flames.

JOHN ROBINSON's circus had to "cancel its dates" above New-Cumberland, on account of low water. The show exhibits at that place to-day, and on Monday at Martin's Ferry. Tuesday at Wheeling, and Wednesday at Belvoir. Two of the barges were brought down and landed above the Top Mill last night, with a large number of the horses and wagons, and considerable property belonging to the show.

THE GALE ART GALLERY.—The Paintings Exhibited by Mr. Scott.—We yesterday mentioned a very fine collection of oil paintings by Mr. D. G. Gale, No. 1142 Main street, which were to be sold at auction Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next, May 24, 25 and 26, at 4 and 8 o'clock p.m., at the sales room, No. 1142 Main street, Hornbrook's block.

We visited the gallery last evening, and gave the pictures a more careful inspection. They are, almost without exception, rare works of art, in some cases being remarkable for their artistic qualities. Many noted artists are represented in the collection, and there are numerous fine copies of celebrated paintings by the great masters. One or two after Raphael are really beautiful, and a copy by Bernini, owned by Rosa Bonheur's "Horse Fair," owned by Mrs. A. J. Stewart, is very like the original. Probably the most striking thing in the collection is a little gem, by W. M. Harnett, of Philadelphia, now painting in Europe. This is called "Myneer's Lunch," and the coloring, perspective and grouping are of the most perfect kind. It is a picture of a man, in the way we ever saw. Two terriers' heads by H. Simon, of Philadelphia, are also remarkable for their truth to the life, and a pair of poultry pictures have a fine quality in a marked degree. A marine view by Wallace, "Twilight After Rain," is a perfect thing, and another by the same, entitled "Quarantine and Inland Bound," is only second to its mate. Some Swiss scenes, by H. Simon, are also very fine. The collection is a little gem, by W. M. Harnett, of Philadelphia, now painting in Europe.
